Thank you, Ken! I think I'll use the one with the truck.

This is all the pictures that I took on our site visit. I look for problems and issues so my pictures may not be what you want for a website. Also it was raining hard when we did the visit. You probably don't have standing water like this most of the time.

Stephen -

Would you happen to have a relevant photo of the Lane Plating site I could include in my social media reminder for the community meeting next week?

Worth a thousand words and all that ...
